The selection of the Council to elect the Vice-President for a period of one year. A bold election every year is in accordance with the provisions of the Act

But the question is, can such a Resolution be passed in the case of the Honourable [redacted], who was elected Vice-President under Rule 7(a) of T. [redacted]

As for [redacted] the T. Act, the term of an elected Vice-President or a nominated Vice-President is in the case only the ordinary term of office as Councillor, unless otherwise provided for in the Act [redacted] Hay T. Rule 7 has not fixed the term of his office to one year, hence under normal circumstances, his term of office will be deemed to be three years

But the powers of the Council to elect their Vice may, in special cases, with the consent of the Nominated Council direct that the term of the Vice-President be limited to one year, & that election be held every year. Such a direction if there can only be made at (or before) the time of election, & not after election

NOTE—Contn Sheet

Chairman/Vice President for a period of three years, & he can only be removed from his office after three years, and then he ceases - as a Councillor, that is to say, and then no disqualification under the Act arises as follow But the proviso to Sec 12 of the Act, which does not amount to a disqualification clause - it lays down a principle, that is to direct the Govt, a Vice President when he may be only for one year, should be removed period of three years - and a duty should be done at the time of election If this is not the construction is applied to the proviso, then must be impossible, a Vice President can be removed in office at any time, which I think is not the intention of the Legislature
